New Business-Elithia Stanfield, Assistant County Administrator-Beach Re-nourishment Funding

President Lawrence welcomed Elithia Stanfield, Assistant County Administrator to the BIG-C. Ms. Stanfield introduced herself and discussed the different areas concerning beach re-nourishment funding, including breaking down the Pinellas County Bed Tax.

Ms. Stanfield answered many questions dealing with the monetary and legislative aspects of the re-nourishment funding and had Ms. Nicole Elko, Pinellas County, answer questions dealing with the environmental issues.

President Lawrence thanked Ms. Stanfield for her informative presentation and also thanked Ms. Elko for answering the questions from the audience.

Miscellaneous

Doris Burns spoke on behalf of Senator Jones' office. She apologized for the Senator's absence, but he was out of town. Ms. Burns did explain that the Senator does not support oil drilling out in the gulf.

Representative Jim Frishe also stated that he was not in favor of off shore drilling. Representative Frishe said until science gets more advanced there is no need for further discussion.

Nicole Elko, from Pinellas County, gave a beach update and said the pipeline has been moved.

A subcommittee to evaluate Article Seven was set up. Mayor Simons, Commissioner Collins, and Kathy Councilor Mortensen were appointed to the project. Mayor Robertson moved to approve the subcommittee. The motion was duly seconded and carried unanimously.

The Bed Tax Extension was discussed next. The BIG-C members spoke to their respective city representatives and although some city representatives requested more information, but a majority of the cities were against it unless the money came back to the beach

Offshore drilling was the next item for discussion. The BIG-C members spoke to their respective city representatives about the subject. After some discussion, the BIG-C representatives decided that until there is more technical safety involved in the process, they are mainly against it.

President Lawrence thanked the City of Treasure Island and Mayor Mary Maloof for her hospitality and the wonderful breakfast that she provided.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:12 a.m.
